April 21 deadline set for events on Festival schedule

Some changes were implemented to the Klown Festival for this year at last Thursday's Chamber Board meeting held at the Plainview Manor.

Specifically, the Board agreed to update the dinner listing, remove the posters and billboards, and add a deadline for those dinner events to be held in the chamber's name.

However, members met with Chairman Ronar Walker and Committee Members Danie Elwood and heard concerns about comments from the community that the Festival needed some changes.

Wacker said that while the changes are coming along, support of the Festival is necessary – either through attendance or funds donated in some form. "The bigger and better" acts to town during the event.

This year's event already has a dinner dinner with the Plainview High School band as well as the introduction of a few new events to help fill up the Chamber's plans for the weekend.

All organizations, individuals are welcome to participate in the weekend's activities, but are notified to the Klown Festival Chair Ronar Walker of dates and times events will be held to be added to the schedule.

That deadline was set at April 21. All events can still be held, but to reserve the rest of the Festival's promotional items, an early deadline was requested by the Chamber.

New dinner listings will also come along with benefits this year. The benefits and levels include:

- Mayor Dinner, $150 and $100 placement on posters, schedule brochure, name listed on the sign at the Band Shell Park and a mention of support during the parade.
- Contributing, $75-$149; name listed on the sign at the Band Shell Park and listed on the brochure as a contributor.
- Supporter, $74 and below; name listed on the sign at the Band Shell Park.

"Anyone willing to assist with the Festival, that is planning an event, would like to serve on the committee should contact Chamber Chairman Ronar Walker."

Wausa couple to open new restaurant Submitted Article

Come the first of May the Club 148’s front portion will again have a renovated restaurant in operation. Owner, Theresa Wacker of Plainview, has finalized a lease agreement with the local Wausa businessman. The former portion has been removed to make way for the new Club 148 at the Festival. That deadline was set at April 21.

The development Corporation was willing to provide the lease for the long-time Mary’s Cafe family restaurant when the present lease expired. The current lease expired on March 26.

But just about a month ago, the McGrews came and looked and met with the Legion executive board and agreed to sign a lease. They also have facilities to cater events operated a Wausa café for many years.

The McGrews agreed to call the restaurant the McGrew’s Family Restaurant. Current plans are to be open for business Monday through Sunday noon. The current plan is to have the restaurant ready for operation by the first of May. They plan a "total gym" system and "high-low" table.

Camp Luther staff visit Zion School

- Submitted Article

Wednesday, April 2, the student body of Zion Lutheran School met for their weekly worship, but this day was no ordinary day. They were blessed with two staff members of Camp Luther of Sycamore, Illinois. Director Dave Welker and Assistant Director Cassandra Splinter.

Interestingly enough, said Head Teacher Cleve Wolk, “He had visited our school a year and a half ago as a missionary in Peru. We all feel that he was doing missions work, but a half of a world class. Splinter led in an song with guitar and voice and Wolk gave us the day’s message.”

“Adventures on television may act excited in selling a certain product, but their under-lined motive is how much money they can get when pushing their product onto the consumer. We as Christians also have a mission and our purpose is to serve God and our fellow man,” Wolk said.

After the chapel service was over, Mrs. Wolk explained about the different summer camps that are being offered for all different age levels beginning with first grade-Junior High. They will even have a camp for parents or grandparents to be a part of and bring their own children in order to experience camp.

This year’s camp theme is “Surviv” which is taken from Psalm 102:14 “Survive with gladness.”

“Students from Zion and eager to be a part of one of the camps that are being offered this summer at Camp Luther,” said Wolk.

Board tables decision on armor coating bids

By: Sharon Broekemeier

The Pierce County Board of Commissioners met on Monday, March 31, outside of the board to deal with a short agenda.

The Board reviewed four bids for 17 miles of micro pavement. Supervising Engineer Brian McDonald opened the three submitted bids for this week.

The Road Guy of Yankton, S.D. submitted a bid of $198,125.50 with a start date of June 26th.

Top-Kote, Inc. of Yankton, S.D. submitted a bid of $232,521.31 with a start date of June 25th.

The Bill Construction of Iowa bid $279,807.00 with a start date of July 21.

McDonald said although the Road Guy had the low bid, they did not require an estimate from the specifications attached. McDonald said it would be possible for the company to submit an estimate, but he would still have to make the steps to choose the company.

The Board did not make a decision, because they wanted to go through the bids to see if everything was correct before making a decision. The Board will award the contract at the next meeting on April 14 at the time that the Road Guy would be able to withdraw their bid.

In another business the Board: (1) Held a public hearing to consider the request from Adelot Health to empower their motor vehicles through the Pierce County Hospital Client Shernon Wragge and said the request was a renewal. The Board closed the hearing and voted to approve the request. The Board also approved the final version of the 2013 and deadline to reserve a meal can

The Plainview Pirate golf team has been able to get their second meet of the season, hosting Seward and Creighton in a make-up contest that was originally scheduled to take place in early March.

Creighton edged the Pirates out of first-place, 192-203, with Ot-Neill following in third with 205. Colin Wright was the medalist for the O-Neills on April 4 for a dual with the Eagles. The varsity was defeated despite a 39 from Sam Meuret. Meuret was the medalist for the meet at Nate Googlea low of 77 for O-Neill with 36. Meuret was able to overcome a double hole with three birdies. Larry Knaak struggled as he was unable to get up and down after reaching the green, said Coach Knaak. Wright finished with a 46, but he is "expected to do a better job when it lets his experience help him," said Knaak.

Kaleb Eichberger and Ty Mist finished the team scoring as a 39 even though he stayed away from real big numbers, and also had one par for the round. Meuret struggled around the green, and that kept him from scoring consistency, Burger shot 52.

BUDGET 2013-2015

The Plainview Pirate boys’ golf team was finally able to open their season on April 4 at a dual with the Eagles. They shot 71 and 73, respectively. The reserves were also defeated 195-231, despite Jimmy Burger and Turner Dahl having decent rounds. Burger finished with a 52 as he was able to avoid big numbers on all but two holes. Dahl had a 53, as he left three holes do in after avoiding bog-}
